

Which certified courses in CITI PROGRAM can be used to fulfill the human research ethics training requirements by Mahidol University Institutional Review Board (IRB) ?

(Only for students, staff and faculty members of Mahidol University)

The Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI Program) is an alternative training program in human research ethics for various types of research for Mahidol University students, staff and faculty members

The Human Subjects Research (HSR) course is one of the CITI PROGRAM courses that deals with human research. This course is suitable for researchers conducting research with humans, or using identifiable data or specimens from humans. The HSR course is divided into biomedical and social/behavioral sciences research.

Researchers who wish to use the certificate in support of their Human Subjects Research Ethics Review (HSR) course should select modules based on their study and student status, as follows:

The Human Subjects Research (HSR) course

Module: Biomedical Researchers

For researchers, staff, teachers working in biomedical research or medical science.

- Complete all 8 required (R) modules
- Complete 3 of 9 elective (E) modules
- 22 Supplemental* (S) modules

Module: Student Biomedical Research

For students working in biomedical research or medical science

- Complete all 4 required (R) modules
- Complete 1 of 3 elective (E) modules
- 6 Supplemental* (S) modules

Module: Social & Behavioral & Humanities Researchers

For researchers, staff, teachers working in the social sciences, humanities, behavioral sciences or the arts.

- Complete all 8 required (R) modules
- Complete 1 of 3 elective (E) modules
- 22 Supplemental* (S) modules

Module: Student Social, Behavioral & Humanity Research

For students researching the social sciences, humanities, behavioral sciences or the arts.

- Complete all 4 required (R) modules
- Complete 1 of 4 elective (E) modules
- 4 Supplemental* (S) modules

Achieve an average score of at least 80% on all tests in modules R and E.

* Supplemental modules (module S) is optional and do not count towards passing the course or change the overall score *

When you pass all the tests, you can download the training certificate directly from the website. The certificate is valid for 4 years from the date it was received.